

20031101

Central European Land Knowledge Center's Visibility & Networking Conference Budapest, October 31, 2003

HUNAGI's partner CelkCenter has organised its 2nd international meeting on property rights and land market development. Hosted by MoARD the conference opening was videotaped by several television broadcasting companies. Invited by CelkCenter, the event attracted 75 participants from 18 countries. For details including agenda, presentations and contributions, as well as list of participants please visit: www.celk.org.

Above: Moments before the Opening session with Dr.Imre Németh, Minister of the Agriculture and Rural Development, Dr.László Vajda, Head of the Directorate of EU Integration and Ms.Maria Kadlicekova Representative of the UN FAO Subregional Office at Budapest.

Working session was co-chaired by the representatives of the Delegation of the European Commission in Budapest and the World Bank Regional Office in Zagreb

The majority of the participants came from CelkCenter's beneficiary countries including the EU Accession, candidate and some West Balkan countries. GIS and SDI was mentioned as useful tools in several presentations.

Below: Senior decision makers from the Baltics

Below: Jury at work. Dr. Richard Baldwin international expert in land market modelling and Géza Apagyi, acting Director General of the Department of Lands and Mapping of MoARD evaluated the contributions during the discussion forum co-chaired by Mr. Jack Damen of DLG/FAO SEUR, moderator and Ms. Marianna Pósfai, Director of CelkCenter

The well prepared, innovative voting game session provided valuable orientation for CelkCenter's future directions in actions and opinions on the priorities.

Please find another illustrated short news on the social evening at www.hunagi.hu