

Information Systems at Agricultural, Forestry and Rural Areas - enlargement of EU

10th International Conference
20. – 21. 4. 2004, Seč u Chrudimi, Czech Republic

Call for papers

Please, send your abstracts matching to one of down stated topics by means of on-line interface at address: <http://www.ccss.cz/sec2004/abstract> the latest till 29th February.

You will be noticed by program committee about receiving your paper not later than 15th March. The final paper will be demand till 31st March.

Topics for 2004 year:

Enlargement of EU – opportunities and experiences

- Impact of Enlargement of Europe on Czech foresters and farmers
- Bridging digital divide in forestry and agricultural field
- Structural founds for foresters and farmers
- Eu research for rural regions

ICT technology for rural areas

- Broadband
- Mobil systems
- Location based services
- Open source technology
- Web technology

IACS, traceability, precision farming

- Control systems in Agriculture and Forestry
- Food safety and traceability
- Precision farming

E-rural

- E-work and e-business in rural regions
- New tools in rural development
- Tourism in rural areas
- Culture heritage as part of European Identity
- Distance learning and its roll in rural development

Application ICT for agricultural and forestry

- Information systems for management
- Web technologies for business
- Open source solution for Czech foresters and farmers
- Geographic information system for foresters and farmers
- Remote sensing in forestry and agriculture